Absence Col. Nass, Embassy officer conveyed substance reference telegram Slotemaker, Executive Vice President KLM, who took careful note points made. Latter said understood Cuba had again closed air space to civil flights so no immediate problem. Said KLM wished continue cooperate this matter and had no present intention resuming Havana service even though Iberia had done so. Said should PAA or Mexicana resume Havana operations however KLM would again be forced reconsider position. Slotemaker promised KLM would continue consult Embassy prior any action this matter. Embassy officer expressed appreciation this cooperation.

View above Embassy not raising subject with GON and did not discuss this possibility with Slotemaker.
